

Bearden Buggy Company

Is Now Located at

101-103 Broadway

We carry a full line of Buggies and Vehicles come and inspect our lines or call

Main 417

STAR 5c Theatre

New Management
Now Showing the Best Moving Pictures
Comedy, Drama, Western Shows
Good Order. Don't Fail to Visit
the STAR THEATRE
Star Theatre ADMISSION 5c
412 Cedar Street

The National Life and Accident Insurance Co.

Nashville, Tenn.

Cash Capital $200,000.00
Life, Health and Accident Insurance in one Policy
Weekly and Monthly Premium Plan

MRS. E. M. LINTON Dressmaker

All kinds of sewing done with neatness and despatch. Satisfaction guaranteed
1255 Second Ave. S., Nashville, Tenn.

Hot Air Notice Hot Air Furnaces

We can put you on your

Roofing

Put in your

Mantels

In your Homes and Churches.

Come and Figure with

We can arrange it with you if you haven't got all the money TO PAY CASH.

Deal with us and you will be treated right.

Jones & Hopkins Mfg. COMPANY

207 3rd AVENUE, N. MAIN-2270-2271

ist-Church participated in the service. The recitations by the children were as follows: Little Bernetta White, Jr. and Lou Smith were the most attractive on program. Dialogues by Annie Lou and Mary Eliza Hicks, Birdie Evelyn Foster, Ophelia White, Samuel Peebles, Ada Searcy, Eva Searcy and Maggie Sue Cook, also excellent papers by Misses Willie Mae Miller, Army Vanleer and Bessie Searcy. Rev. Mr. B. Manter will preach a special sermon at Solomon Chapel Sunday. Rev. T. J. Eatherly spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lenard Leech. Mrs. Van Searcy and children spent Sunday with their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Mag Harris.

BRIERSVILLE NOTES.

Rev. Edd Yateman preached at the C. M. E. Church Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock. Mrs. Arminia Shute is better. Mrs. Ennora Shield entertained a few friends. Those present were Mr. Bart Bates, Mrs. Nanie Bates, Miss Lurena Lewis and Mr. E. J. Porter of Kansas City, Kansas. Miss Katie Lee Pettis and Florence Pettis of Briarsville, Tenn., spent Sunday and Monday in Nashville, Tenn., visiting their relatives. Mr. Robert Woodson of East Nashville, Tenn., spent Sunday in Briarsville, Tenn., visited his sister, Mrs. Arminia Shute Sunday evening. Mr. James Lewis of Briarsville spent Saturday night and Sunday in Nashville, Tenn., visiting relatives.

DAYTON NOTES.

Sunday, March 23rd was a great day in Zion. The installation of the pastor of the Mount Zion Baptist Church was conducted by Rev. N. P. Anderson of Chattanooga. The program was carried out in an orderly way. Invocation was delivered by Rev. J. R. Franklin. Song by choir, with Miss Mable Franklin at the organ. "Bless be the tie that binds" by Dr. J. W. Wood, subject "The Relation of the Deacon to the Pastor"; recitation by Miss A. L. E. Holman; paper was read and brief remarks were made by Prof. Edward Ingle. Prof. Angle made an excellent statement, one full of gigantic thought and interest. Mr. Fred Boddy sang a solo suitable to the occasion full of spirit, after which Dr. Wood read the Scripture Lesson and one verse of "Go preach my gospel" was sung. Rev. N. P. Anderson was introduced by the master of ceremonies, Prof. Edward Ingle. Rev. Anderson chose for his text, "Feed my Lambs and Feed my Sheep." Mrs. Virginia Cunningham was able to be out last Sunday after being indisposed for the past six weeks. She dined with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mathes on East Fox St., accompanied by Dr. Wood. Mrs. L. M. Brown who has been indisposed for the month was out last Sunday. Club No. 182 will give an entertainment for the rally in May. Mrs. A. L. Lowery, captain of No. 4 will give an entertainment Saturday night at the College Hill Hall. Mr. Will Mase who was injured at the D. C. and I. Furnace last week is able to be out again. Mr. Riley Smith and Thursday night by Rev. J. T. Thornton at the residence of Mrs. Salena Brown on the corner of Market and Washington streets. Rev. H. W. Stripling, the ex-pastor of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church filled the stand at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Sunday. Rev. H. W. Stripling is pastoring at St. Elm, Chattanooga, Tenn. Last Sunday was a great day at the American Church with the Knights of Pythias, where they turned out and had a Thanksgiving sermon preached by Rev. J. D. Miller. The Order was well represented. A paper was read by Mrs. J. T. Thornton giving the relation and strong works of the Calantheans. A song by the well directed choir; paper by Mrs. Bell Bogale; paper by Mr. T. J. Suddath; all were full of wisdom and love. Rev. J. T. Thornton made some very interesting remarks, along the lines of Pythianism. Mr. N. R. Roberts was master of ceremonies. Scripture Lesson was read by Rev. Johnson of the M. E. Church. The second lesson was read by Rev. J. G. Crippins. The paper read by a little girl of the Juvenile was a model for the future of our young children. May this Order grow to its utmost capacity and be a model for all who wish to rise in society. Mr. W. M. McDonald of Chattanooga was visiting friends in Dayton last Sunday. Mrs. J. L. Lee was able to be out to church last Sunday for the first time since November, 1912. The entertainment given last Saturday-night by Club No. 4 in the interest of the rally to be given in May was a success. $9.10 was collected. Mrs. Will Rucker who has been indisposed is slowly improving. The newly married couple which was reported off to a honeymoon trip in the South has returned and settled at their home on College street. Dr. J. W. Wood is doing a large practice in our city and is much thought of by all. He was water bound in South Dayton by the rapid rise of the Richland Creek this week and was unable to call to see Miss Blanche Mase, who is very ill with fever in Morgantown. Mrs. Bessie Hodgkins is at the bedside of her sick daughter at Morgan Town. Miss Glennia Cunningham and Miss Lealer Miller visited Miss Blanche Mase last Wednesday in Morgan Town. Mrs. Lizzie Martin, Mrs. Virginia Cunningham and Mrs. Emma Gillespie went shopping at the D. C. and I Co. Store last Thursday. Mr. Eugene Billingsby of North Market street is in Win Rock, Tenn. Mrs. L. M. Brown, who has been indisposed for some time is able to be out again. Mr. J. J. Jolley left last Sunday for Columbus, Ohio to work. Miss Lucy Eass on Jewel street was the welcomed guest of Mrs. John Martin on Maple street last Sunday. Afternoon. Mrs. Bessie Hodgkins dined with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lee last Sunday at supper.

PULASKI NOTES.

Miss Inez E. Uphaw went to Birmingham, Ala., Saturday. The Mt. Zion Sunday-school rendered a very successful program last Sunday and collected a nice sum for foreign missions. The series of meeting began at old Mt. Zion last week. Dr. McCutchen of Nashville will begin a revival meeting at Beulah the first Sunday in April. Messrs. Branan Herman and Oakfield, who will be here several weeks laying brick joined the Beulah Sunday-school Sunday. Rev. D. Howard preached the Pythian sermon at Aspen Hill Sunday. Mr. H. Braden went to Nashville last week. Rev. T. J. Givens who is a messenger in the Lodges to come home Saturday and he seems to enjoy his work very well. Prof. W. T. Douglass, Pension Attorney has just closed his school at Pisgah and he can now be found in his pension office here. Miss J. B. Bramlette closed her school last Friday, though just before she left her boarding place she stepped on a decade plank on the porch floor and it broke and caused her to receive a very painful injury and she is now receiving medical treatment for the same. Mrs. Arthur Baugh of Conway is visiting her parents in Culpepper. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Smith Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Gentry went to Elkhart, Ala., Saturday. Mr. Tom Potter, who has been away several days, returned home Saturday to visit his family. Mr. Willie Potter of St. Louis, Mo., was in town Saturday. Willie was formerly a Giles County boy and is making good in the great city where he is at work. Mrs. Fannie Rhodes is some better this week. Quite a number of the K. of P. boys here went to Aspen Hill Sunday to witness the sermon. Mr. Walter McLaurine met with a painful but not serious accident which resulted in a sprained ankle. Mrs. Emma Mason has closed her school and is at home again. The McKissack brothers opened up their Ice Cream Parlor on N end and are doing a nice business. Mrs. Mary Skilleen, who was the mother of Rev. M. C. Skilleen died last Monday night and was buried on Tuesday. Rev. J. R. Ballentine and Rev. D. Howard attended the funeral. She had lived a consistent Christian for over thirty-five years. She is survived by a son and a host of friends to mourn her departure from them. Rev. Chas. Miles went to Elkmount Sunday to fill his appointment. Mr. Joe Daly got his house and all of its contents burned a few days ago. He and his wife were away and they barely saved the children.

MADISON STATION NOTES.

Mr. Lee Bates, Jr., and Mr. Willie Franklin attended the K. of P. sermon Sunday at the first Baptist Church, of East Nashville and all reported a nice time. Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Litton Johnson of Neely's Bend were the guests of Mrs. Callie Shute Sunday. Mrs. Callie Shute is still on the sick list. Rev. U. S. G. Brown, pastor of Mt. Juliet spent Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bates. Mr. and Mrs. Will Falls, Mrs. Ella Gee of Nashville spent Sunday with her daughter. Mr. Jossie Benton, Mrs. Erle Bates, Mrs. Rachel Lewis and Sister Laura, Miss Marcella Bates, Mrs. Martha Gee were the merry guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Douglass Sunday afternoon and a joyful evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Edd Biddie have built and moved to their lovely home. Mrs. Mary Reed, Mr. Ben Porter of Kansas City, Mo., Miss Viola Reed and Sister Louisa, Mrs. Rachel Lewis, Mr. John Drew, Miss Malissa Wood, Mr. Charlie Venson, Mr. Henry Walton, Mr. Von of Briville, Mr. Willie Franklin, Mr. Charlie Fell, Mrs. Nettie Walton were the merry guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bates Sunday night and a joyful time was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Gray entertained Rev. U. S. G. Brown at dinner last Tuesday.

WINCHESTER NOTES.

Mrs. Emma Innett departed this life Tuesday morning, March 25, 1913 at 12:30 o'clock a. m. Her last words, "I am ready and willing and I am just waiting on the Lord," and then she fell asleep in the arms of Jesus. She professed a hope in Christ and was baptized into the fellowship of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church for (31) years, 11 months and 25 days. She has lived a quiet and peaceful, and faithful member all these years. Her husband preceded her 10 years, 11 months, and 17 days. She leaves to mourn her loss seven sons, one daughter, one sister and brother and a host of friends and relatives. This community has lost a precious jewel and her vacancy can never be refilled. But our loss is heaven's gain. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh, so blessed be the name of the Lord. "Dearest mother thou hast left us here, but it is God who hast bereft us; he can all our sorrows heal." Adv.

STEVENSON (ALA) NOTES.

The rally at the M. E. Church last Sunday was quite a success; all the members and friends labored to make it a success. Rev. P. P. Wright, the pastor is well satisfied with the results. Rev. C. H. Newby, pastor of the A. M. E. Church, assisted Rev. Wright in his services. Miss Annie Daniel, who has been teaching school at Hollywood, Ala., had her closing exercises last week, which was nicely carried out. Miss Daniel is at home now, spending happy days with her loving father, Mr. W. C. Daniel. Mrs. Pearl Bryant of Richard City was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Robinson. Mrs. Ellen Churby and little children of Richard City were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Rudder last week. Mr. D. C. Stephens attended service at Scottsboro last Sunday. He reported having a fine time. Miss Fannie Cole attended services at Holly Wood last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hunt were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L.

C. Cole last Sunday. Mrs. Nina E. Ditty are preparing a program for a rally the second Sunday. The Christian Endeavor is still growing in interest. Rev. P. P. Wright addressed the society on mission and education which was very good. Mrs. Dora L. Smith will take a trip to Nashville soon. When you fail to patronize your own enterprises, you are against them. Why not subscribe for the Globe now?

TULLAHOMA NOTES.

Last Sunday was a great day in Baptist Bottom. The people gathered in large crowds at the church. The Sunday-school rally that was conducted by Rev. Zemer Hill of Dechard and Rev. A. H. Siler of Estell Springs assisted and preached three soul-stirring sermons, which were enjoyed by all present. Mr. Wm. Woods and wife of Estell Springs spent last Sunday in our town visiting friends. Rev. J. S. Swift has returned from Nashville. He was accompanied by Rev. Burns, who is assisting him a great revival. Mrs. Della Neal and husband made a flying visit to Stevenson, Ala. last Sunday. Rev. I. H. Siler was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hunt last Sunday. Dr. Wm. Webb is making preparation to go to Indiana to study Law. Rev. N. B. Morton was called to Fayetteville last Monday on some very important church business.

DRY CREEK NOTES.

Mrs. Dayton Jones and children and Mrs. Lilly Fisher spent Sunday in Nashville visiting her Aunt, Mrs. Myrtle Frye and cousin, Mrs. Malinda Works and also attended the K. of P. sermon at the First Baptist Church. While in the city Mrs. Lily Fisher and Miss Olivia Jones, Master Emma Jones and Mrs. Jones called at the home of Mrs. Della Gee and were delightfully entertained by Misses Annie Bell and Maria Gee. Mrs. Gee being called away to the bedside of her sick brother. Mrs. Bessie Kelly of Springfield, who spent a week visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Lilly Fisher will return home Monday evening. They report a grand time.

MT. JULIET NOTES.

The health of our community is very good at present. Mrs. Maggie Clemons, who has been on the sick list for several weeks is reported better at this writing. The Quarterly Conference which was held at Branch Grove (on the Mt. Juliet Circuit) last Saturday, March 22 was a success in every way. Rev. Gardener, the Presiding Elder preached a wonderful and soul-stirring sermon on Saturday at eleven o'clock during the session of the Conference. Rev. U. S. G. Brown, P. C. was very much elated over the works and reports which came from the different churches. The total amount of money raised during the Conference was $44.75. Easter day at Scott's Chapel was quite a success. A regular Easter day program was rendered. Mrs. Hattie McClain was Master of Ceremonies. The following ladies had interesting papers. Miss Annie M. Brown of Murfreesboro, Tenn., Miss Mamie Cockrel and Miss McClain of Scott's Hollow, Tenn., Mrs. Missouri Lester, the public school teacher at Scott's Hollow sang a beautiful solo. We had a wedding at this place Sunday, March 30th. Those who were joined together in holy bonds of matrimony were Mr. George Dibrell and Miss Lovie Jackson; maid of honor, Miss Millie Curd; best man, Mr. Milton Jackson. Rev. U. S. G. Brown, the pastor officiated. The bride was dressed in blue silk trimmed with white satin. The couple received many valuable presents. The wedding table groined beneath its luxuries. The marriage fever seems to be catching in Mt. Juliet, as we hear of another couple that is expecting very soon to have the nuptial knot tied. The Sunday-school at this place conducted by Prof. J. W. Stanford is improving rapidly. With much success to the Globe.

SMYRNA NOTES.

Miss Hattie Gregory was the guest of Miss Mamie Gooch Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John L. Smith went to Chattanooga and stopped and spent the day here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James Carter visited her mother, Mrs. Jennie Mathews. Little Miss Cora L. Buchanan, who has been staying with her aunt, Mrs. Eva Hill is spending a few days at home this week. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Pierce passed through here to visit friends and relatives in Jefferson Sunday. A number of sisters of the Women's Auxiliary went to Mrs. Mariah Cook's Monday and made it pleasant for her. She has been sick for quite a while. Little Miss Johnnie Holland continues ill. Miss Malissa Dremmon is on the road to recovery. Miss Maggie B. Blackman and sister Myrtle spent the evening with the Misses Thompson Sunday. Mr. John Thompson went to Murfreesboro to see his sister, Mrs. Martha House Sunday. Quite a number of ladies and little girls went to see Mrs. Catherine Holland's Sunday to see her sick daughter. Mrs. M. C. Wade took dinner with Mrs. Thompson Monday.

EDENWOLD NOTES.

The First Baptist Church of this place held its services last Sunday and Sunday night. Rev. Lewis of Cedar Grove, preached at both services. The Ladies' Auxiliary Board met last Monday evening at the home of Sister Martha Boaz. Miss Emma Gibbs, of Rock City, was the guest of Miss Emily Janning last Sunday. Miss Jessie Fite, who has been visiting her mother, has returned to Nashville. Mrs. Nettie Bowman, who has been visiting her mother at Laguardo, Tenn., returned to this place last Saturday. Mrs. Drane and Miss Lillian Reed are still very sick. Mr. Walter Davis, of Bakers, Tenn., was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Oldham, last Sunday. Mr. R. P. Patton and Mrs. Mary Joyner, who spent the winter in Naples, Fla., with Mr. Palmer, have returned. Mr. Wash Brown spent a few days at Franklin, Tenn., last week.

Perry & Lester Coal Co.

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

COAL

TANNER HENDRICK, Manager

Yards: 606 Second Ave. N. PHONE MAIN 29

CHAS. COHN A. L. GOLDBERG

Cohn and Goldberg LUMBER

Yards Cor. Fifth Ave. and Demonbreun St. and 10910 128 Fifth Ave. South Phone M. 188 Nashville, Tenn.

Take Kuhn's LUNG & THROAT BALSAM

TRADE AT

Mansfield's Pharmacy

10th Avenue and Jefferson Street

Free, Quick Delivery P. M. 1091

Jefferson Street Meat Market G. J. FRANCIS, Manager

Home killed meats of the best selection Vegetables and Fancy Groceries, Fish and Oysters a specialty. For prompt delivery call MAIN 1012.

CORNER Warren & Jefferson

OFFICE PHONE M 1839 RESIDENCE PHONE HENLOCK 1940

Miss One, Call the Other

Richard Hill

Real Estate-Notary Public

REAL ESTATE BARGAINS AND PENSION CASES A SPECIALTY
110 1-2 Cedar Street Nashville, Tenn.

Prompt Service Phone Main 2098

University Dry Cleaning Co.

Dry, Steam and Chemical Cleaning

Ladies Work a Specialty All Work Guaranteed

618 Jefferson St. Nashville, Tenn.

A. G. JARRETT

POOL ROOM and CAFE

BREEDER OF

Thoroughbred Bull Dogs

Correspondence Solicited, Address

A. G. JARRETT

Shelbyville, Tenn.

C. L. HARDING

Two Stores: 11th & Jefferson 12th & Jefferson

Fresh Meats and Groceries of all kinds

Everybody Welcome

Come and See

1341 801 Jefferson St.

G. E. TRIEBER

Staple and Fancy Groceries

Remember Trieber's Fresh Meat counter filled with Pork Chops, Brisket Beef, Round Steaks, Loin and Teabone Steaks.

Everything good to eat

Six Reasons Why You Should Use

RENWAR

Relieves all Rheumatic pains.
Enriches the blood.
Neutralizes Uric acid.
Warranted to cure.
Absolutely corrects constipation.
Recommended by all who have used it.

For sale by all Druggists

50c per bottle

Manufactured by

Warner Drug Co.

NASHVILLE, TENN.